GARAGE SALE. Remember that OUR garage sale will be held on November 22-23 at Pete Bello's. Check your basement - pull anything usable and send it to: Ron Faina, Galdo Pavini, Pete Bello, Chuck Bottarini or Jack Parodi. This is fund raising project!

NOTE from District 4-C4. DEEP BASEBALL LEAGUE DAY is Sunday, October 26, 1975 (1:00 PM). On this day Lions, Ladies, sightless athletes, managers coaches and friends will meet at "Deep Baseball Field", located in San Francisco at 27th Street and Douglass St.

This day will serve many purposes:

- We will all get acquainted and get to be friends,
- We will discuss Deep Baseball and its objectives,
- We will inform everyone about other sightless sports,
- We will have an open question & answer period,
- We will form our new teams and assign coaches,
- We will demonstrate and play Deep Baseball,
- We will serve hot dogs and soft drinks,
- We will all go home extremely happy & well informed.

There should be representation from each Club in the City. In the event that October 26, is rained out we will hold our program on November 2, same place, same time. For more information call Rick Nuccitelli: 697-4622.

LIONS EYE FOUNDATION. Volunteers are still needed to stuff the envelopes for the annual drive. About 35,000 envelopes will be mailed out. Your help is needed. Contact Lion Galdo.

BLOOD BANK. Lion Fred Melchiori with several Lions-donors would like to get together for donation of blood. Please, contact Lion Fred if interested.

THE Unitarian Church was offering five Sunday meetings on "The New Morality", and among the topics listed on the bulletin board were abortion, homosexuality, and pre-marital sexual experience. The woman standing next to me as we read the notice murmured, more to herself than to me, "Oh, dear, I guess I'll have to go to all of them, do that nobody will know which one I'm really interested in."

SIGN spotted on a London bus: "Owing to the Energy Shortage There Will Be No Last Bus on This Route.-
