Dad doesn't waste words when he writes a letter. One he sent to me at San Jose University was enclosed with bus fare home for Christmas vacation. The letter read: "Dear Sue, Here's some bread so you can get back to the breadbox."

WE want a responsible man for this job," said the employer to the applicant. "Well," - said the young fellow, "I guess I'm your man. No matter where I've worked, whenever any thing happened, they always said I was responsible.

OUTSTANDING PROGRAM by Lion Frank Spadarella from Daly City Host Lions. It was about his 240 miles trip down the Colorado River on a rubber raft. Photography was fabulous. Our fathers and Sons enjoyed it very much.

HAPPY THANKSGIVING TO ALL
