

The meeting was called to order by Lion President Joe Farrah.

Introductions of Lions included remarks about any recent trip taken by the member. Ozzie Buoncristiani visited Bodega Bay. Charlie Bottarini and Ron Faina spent a weekend visiting the Frank Ferrera's who were vacationing at their Lake Tahoe home. It was reported that Lion Frank was a loser on his own course. Frank Bulleri visited Omaha, Nebraska, and is glad to be back in good old S.F.. Handford Clews recently returned from a Mediterranean cruise which he recommends to all. Joe Farrah was at MGM in Reno. Al Gentile camped and fished for two days.

The White Canes and cans will be at the manager's desk of each bank.

White Cane Days Co-Chairman Angelo Sfarzo will handle the addressing of 200 envelopes with letters to be mailed to merchants in the Geneva-Excelsior area requesting funds to help the Lions help those with sight problems. These letters will not be mailed to members of the club. If you are a member who can't donate some time selling White Canes, please donate a check payable to Lions White Cane Days.

A Council meeting report by Al Gentile included information that City of Hope and Stanford University, developed a new type of insulin for diabetics. Our weekly contribution to the DIME & PRAYER BANK helped fund this research.

GOLF TOURNAMENT. Lion Handford has room for 20 more golfers for the November 4-5, Geneva-Excelsior Lions Invitational Golf Tournament at the Silverado C.C. Please ask friends if they would like to participate in this weekend of golf and festivity.

BULLETIN CORRECTIONS: Lion Gil Smail's residence telephone is 359-0104. Lion Bill Tonelli also participated in the outing at St. Vincent's School for Boys. Matter of fact, He chauffeured Lion Bottarini.

CUB SCOUTS. A Cub Scout pack in our district is without a meeting place. If any Lion has or knows of a possible meeting place, please notify Lion President Joe.

PROGRAM. Lion Bill Tonelli introduced Dr. Peter Klaphaak and Jan DiSanto, employees of the San Francisco Public Health Service, who operate the Southeast Child-Family Therapy Center, at 4190 Mission St. This is a community health service providing mental health needs for low income families who can't seek private psychotherapy care. What they asked of the Lions is to refer individuals and families who are in need of this service. (Another interesting program provided by Chairman Ed Damonte, who was ill with the flu the night of the meeting.)

RAFFLE: Chuck Stuhr, 5.00 donated to convention fund. Mystery, Fred Krahl. 2.00, donated to Tom O'Connell. Something to do with tom's hunting dog.
