

The meeting was called to order by President Joe Farrah. The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Lion Al Klienbach and the Invocation by Lion Fred Melchiori. President Joe then asked for committee reports:

Lion Giulio Francesconi reported the Cadillac Raffle tickets are being distributed. This fund raising project will require the cooperation and participation of all members. Lion Charlie Bottarini agreed that any member selling a $100 ticket will be entitled to purchase a full tank of gas and no waiting line. It was suggested by certain members that Lion Bill (Goldfinger) be excluded from purchasing a ticket.

Newspaper collection project is progressing good. The original committee is still doing most of the work. What they need from the rest of the members is their efforts to ask neighbors, relatives and friends to stack newspapers in their garage and then you can bundle and deliver to the collection point.

INSTALLATION - Saturday, June 9, the Geneva-Excelsior Lions will honor the outgoing officers and install the new officers for the 1979-1980 year. It is important to honor both groups by the members attendance. This also is an opportunity to invite friends to this steak dinner, dance at the Presidio Officers Club which is one of the most prestigious dinner places in San Francisco.

Lion President Joe asked Lion Al Kleinbach to say a few words. Lion Al received a warm welcome from all his friends.

Lion Bob Dobbins announced that Thursday night, May 18, would be the Scholarship project Round Table Discussion. Graduatn students from several local high schools compete through oral discussion.

Lion Information Chairmen Joe Giuffre and Ron Faina discussed the importance of member and club participation in community projects. Encouraging members to become involved in these club projects is very important. Of utmost importance, announced Lion Joe is to stimulate attendance at the regular club meetings and to involve both old and new members in club activities.

Lion Giulio Francesconi announced that Kevin Shea, son of Lion Bill Shea was signed by the 49'ers.

A Convention committee financial report was made by Lion Frank Ferrera.

A Post Card was received from Lion Bill Tonelli, who was visiting his daughter and her family in Laredo, Texas. Bill said there was no problem with gas lines and the price is .71-.75. He sent regards to members.

President Joe had to leave the room for a minute. An alert member tried to snatch the bell, however, our super-alert Secretary Handford Clews protected Lion Joe's bell.

PROGRAM - Chairman Ed Damonte showed a Bell Telephone film about their preparation in the event of a catastrophe such as an earthquake. As you know, Lion Ed has presented outstanding programs and the following are two more programs worth seeing:

June 6, Speaker will be Paul Brand, Information Officer Bay Area Pollution Control District. This will be a slide and talk presentation.

June 13, Speaker will be Ms. Leslie Ann Williams, Regional Director, San Mateo Hypmovation, Inc. She will speak about "Motivation through self-hypnosis". Additional coming events are:

May 23, Board Meeting at Lion Giulio Francesconi's residence.

June 8, New Officers School of Instruction.

June 9, G-E Lions Installation.

June 20-23, International Convention, Montreal, Canada.

June 28 to July 4, Fireworks Stand.

June 30, Mission Lions Installation at Ramada Inn, Millbrae.

RAFFLE:

First prize, Ed Damonte, Dinner at Scoma's, courtesy of Lion Mike Perri, Jr., Manager of Pan-American Savings and Loan on Mission.

Second prize, Ozzie Buoncristiani, $2.25.

Mystery, Ray Squeri, not attending.

LAST CALL FOR CHANGES. The new bulletin forms are going to printers. If you have any changes, additions or omission, please notify Lion Ted Zagorewicz IMMEDIATELY! (evenings). Next week will be too late! Thank you.
