

The meeting was called to order by President Ted. The Fledge of Allegiance was lead by Lion Ron Bankson, and the invocation was given by Lion Ed Damonte. West O' Twin Peaks Sec. Frank Zumwalt stepped in shortly but didn't stay long enough to get credit for a meeting makeup.

Correspondence from Lion Bob Rose was read asking people to attend "Monte Carlo On The Bay" to benefit Retinitis Pigmentosa Foundation, S.F. Bay Area Chapter. This will take place Sunday, Oct. 20th aboard the S.S. Harbor Prince at Pier 43½. Contribution is $25. Contact Pres. Ted.

COMMITTEE REPORTS: Entertainment Ch'mn. Bob Facheco stated he is considering a fund raising cheese and wine tasting event or a pancake breakfast.

Cadillac Raffle Ch'mn. Giulio Francesconi reported he has receipts in hand for 153 sold tickets. In the ticket selling sweepstakes, Lion Wm. Cazatt declared he is about to take a big lead because he has 6 more sold tickets "in the bag." The committee requests that all members who are holding unsold tickets either sell the tickets now or turn them in to the chairman.

Paper Drive Ch'mn. Chas. Bottarini, back from a three week Tahoe vacation, stated he is grateful to the committee members who did an excellent job in keeping the project going. The container bin holds about six tons of paper, and it is being filled in about four weeks.

Birthday Calendar Ch'mn. Bob Dobbins reminds all members to sell, sell, sell; now, now, now. Turn in deadline is Oct. 5th.

The meeting was turned over to Program Ch'mn. Charles Grisenti. He presented a Pacific Telephone film entitled "Getting It Together." The film dealt with the subject of exposing young pupils to the realities of the business world. Some interesting programs are scheduled for the near future. Guest speakers have been assured they will have a sizeable audience. Your regular attendance is needed to meet this club's commitments.
