

With many more attractive people in the dining room than customarily seen, President Ted called the meeting to order at 7:47 P.M. The Fledge of Allegiance was lead by Lion Mike Spediacci, and the invocation was given by Lion Bill Tonelli. Members introduced themselves and their ladies, this being Ladies Night. President Ted made a personal presentation of Polish artistic wall plates to Wanda Greer and Lion Ozzie Buoncristiani. He then gave a mini club progress report for the period July 1 to Oct. 31.

Secretary Mike Perri, Jr. read a thank you note from Emma Giuffre. Emma has discarded her crutches for a cane so it is good to learn Emma is on the recovery road.

Visiting Lion Thomas George from Calcutta, India; presently a member of the Park-Gate L.C., asked for time to familiarize the club with United Christian Educational Aid, and distributed raffle tickets to support this cause. Any outstanding tickets or checks should be mailed to him at 540 El Camino Del Mar, S.F. 94121.

ACTING PROGRAM CH'MN. Handford Clews introduced Sister Cleta Herold. Sister Cleta is a native San Franciscan, belongs to the Presentation Order, and is the Ass't. Director of St. Benedict's Center for Deaf. She gave the assemblage an informative insight into the world of the deaf. It is estimated there are 224,000 hearing impaired people in the S.F. Bay Area. The program wound up with a tape playing of Debbie Boone's rendition of "You Light Up My Life" with Sister Cleta following along in sign language. Then the audience was treated to a demonstration of sign language by Marie Favini, daughter of Lion Galdo and Pat Favini.

RAFFLE

1st Prize--Linnie Faina
 2nd Prize--Joe Giuffre
 3rd Prize--Eva Bello
 Mystery Raffle--$12, Mike Perri who donated it to the Administration Fund.

Lions Bill Tonelli, Joe Giuffre, Pete Bello, Handford Clews and Ron Faina visited the So. S.F. Lions Club on Tues., Nov. 13th, which was the occasion of the District Governor's official visitation there. It is reported So. S.F. L.C. Tail Twister/Greeter George Stagnaro is one of the district's best at these posts. He makes them pay and leaves them smiling.

Lions Bill Tonelli and Joe Farrah plus Emily Farrah attended the 2nd Cabinet Meeting held at Sacramento Nov. 17th & 18th. A total of 98 Lions and wives enjoyed a pleasant weekend playing golf and bocce ball; watching football on TV, shopping, imbibing--and conducting Lion business. A highlight of Saturday night's dinner was the raffle wherein all three prizes were won by Governor Don and his sister. Governor Don was so chagrined he auctioned off the first prize, a portable TV set. A condition of the auction was that the successful bidder would select the Lion charity the high bid would be donated to. Lion Bob Rose's highest bid of $230 went to the Retinitis Pigmentosa Fund.

Happy Birthday was sung to Lion Pete Bello at the meeting but greetings are sent to him again 11/22.

Celebrating wedding anniversaries this month are Ray & Marilyn Squeri 11/18, Charles & Estelle Bottarini 11/27, and Joe & Emma Giuffre 11/30.

Memo to the Lion Tamer and the Visitation Ch'mn.: Millbrae Lions Club is still in possession of a president's gavel belonging to this club.

Women In Lionism:
 WE SERVE, TOO

Club Members Focus On Home For Children
 Members of the Limassol, Cyprus, Lioness Club are focusing their attention on a group of youngsters living in a children's home. The Lionesses have "adopted" the youngsters and make daily visits and plan suitable weekend entertainment for their little charges. Recently, the children were taken to a seaside resort for the day.

COMING EVENTS

- Nov. 21 Meeting Canceled.
- Nov. 26 Joint Council Meeting at Coyote Pt. Yacht Club. 7:30, $7.50
- Nov. 28 Board Meeting at the residence of Ted Zagorewicz.
- Nov. 29 Lionettes Christmas Party at Iron Gate Restaurant, Belmont.
- Dec. 5 Business Meeting
- Dec. 8 Geneva-Excelsior 3-D Party
- Dec. 12 Program Meeting. Judo Demonstration by Lion Jerry Ennis & Co.
- Dec. 19 Club Christmas Party Meeting
- Feb. 29 Third Cabinet Meeting
- June 7 Geneva-Excelsior L.C. Installation Banquet, Olympic Country Club.

Invite TWO guests to the next meeting.

"Increase your Lions' Fride"