

The March 18th meeting was called to order promptly at 7:30 P.M. by an ailing President Ted. The Pledge of Allegiance was lead by Lion Mike Perri, and the invocation was given by Lion Joe Farrah. Only 18 members were in attendance because a delegation of G.-E. Lions was visiting Nikkei L.C. across town supporting The Candidate. Lion Bill Cazatt appeared at both club meetings that night.

Secretary Mike Perri read a note of gratitude from the Calif. League for the Handicapped and an invitation to attend their open house on April 25th. An announcement was made that the club was notified by the L & L Castle Lanes that there would be a 75¢ increase in the price of the dinners beginning with the first dinner-meeting in April.

An election was held and the slate as nominated by the Nominating Committee (see earlier bulletins) was voted into office. Congratulations to President-Elect Giulio Francesconi and to all of the newly elected officers and directors.

President Joe Bronzini brought a group of fourteen Millbrae Lions on a visitation to the club. Needless to say, all articles of value were nailed down. The Millbrae gang proved to be real sports. They were the visitors and they treated all to wine with dinner. Lion Giulio Francesconi and another Lion presented a challenge to Lions Rick Nuccitelli and Rocky Lombardi. They jointly wagered $5 (to go to the Lions kitty) that President Ted could name more past presidents in the correct order, beginning with the immediate past president, of his club than President Joe could of the Millbrae club. They were to alternate naming the past presidents. The visitors accepted the challenge and lost. At the end of the meeting, some rumbles were heard to the effect that Bronzini was going to have to do some homework!

RAFFLE

1st Prize--$5, Giulio Francesconi
2nd Prize--$3, Frank Bulleri
3rd Prize--$1, Joe Farrah
(A clean sweep by Geneva-Excelsior)
Mystery Raffle--$2, Frank Ferrera

The March 15th "Make Me Irish Night" was a success (see accompanying report). Just watching the drummer perform was worth the price of admission by itself. Buddy Rich--eat your heart out! A net profit of $542 was earned. Ch'mn. G. Francesconi again did a super job in coordinating his committee and putting it all together. It was nice having the visitors from Auburn and the late-comers from the "other party down the street" join in the festivities.

Fourteen Lionettes dined on broiled chicken, seafood casserole, or corned beef & cabbage at the Bunker Room Thursday night. Publicist Davey Rosenberg tried to persuade them to go down to Broadway for the "Soap" grand opening but Chair-ladies Damonte and Smail wouldn't hear of it. Lionette Emily Farrah won the raffle prize of five tulip wine glasses which were donated by Bobbie Damonte.

There will be a rehearsal for the cast in the convention talent show at the C. Bottarini residence this Monday, March 24th at 7:30 P.M.

Youth & Community Activities raffle ticket Ch'mn. Ray Squeri appeals to all members to get their tickets and funds to him by the April 2nd deadline. The Awards Drawing and Dinner-Dance will be held at the Presidio Officers Club on Sat., April 19th. There will also be entertainment. Tickets @ $12.50 may be obtained from Lion Ray.

Lionette Irene Tonelli finally was able to hear Lion Bill make one of his campaign speeches when she accompanied him on the Thursday visitation to the Atherton L.C. Ladies Night. In addition to the Tonellis, nine members plus Emma Giuffre made the trip down the peninsula. A group from Burlingame L.C. was also making a visitation at Butch Maguire's on Woodside Rd. where the meetings are held.

This week's visitations will be as follows: Monday, lunch, Menlo Park Live Oak L.C., Menlo College, President's Dining Room, El Camino Real, Atherton. Tuesday, lunch, So. O' Market L.C., Zuka's Restaurant, 8th & Bryant Sts. Wednesday, dinner, Redwood City Host L.C., Lorenzo's, 3301 El Camino Real, Atherton. Contact Lion Ozzie to car pool on these visits. This is also your last call to send Lion Ozzie your $40 check to confirm your bus reservation for the trip to Scotts Valley for the crab cioppino night this Saturday, March 29th. He must have your cooperation.
