

The meeting of May 7th was called to order by President Ted. The Fledge of Allegiance was led by Lion Ozzie Buoncristiani, and the invocation was given by Lion Bob Woodall.

Regional Youth Exchange Ch'mn. Bob Woodall reported Bill & Irene Tonelli will be hosting a visiting boy from Vicenza, Italy beginning Aug. 1st. Three boys and a girl from Japan will be in need of host families for three weeks beginning July 19th. Any volunteers out there?

Installation Banquet Ch'mn. Joe Farrah distributed tickets for the June 7th event, and campaign committeeman Frank Ferrera plugged the Hors D' Oeuvres Extravaganza set for next Sunday.

Governor Don Stanaway was called upon to induct new member Ed Morey into Lionism. Ed was sponsored by Lion Handford Clews. Lion Tamer Gil Smail promptly tied a bib on Ed, which must be worn at all meetings by the "baby Lion."

An interesting re-union took place between Lions Ed Morey and Art Holl at the meeting. It seems that some fifty years ago Ed, his parents and 9 brothers and sisters were motoring south on vacation when their old Hudson broke down in San Louis Obispo. Art Holl, Sr. and Jr. came upon them and offered to drive them to their destination, which they did. The Lions Club meeting was the first time Ed and Art met face to face since that rescue fifty years ago.

The program was a United Airlines film on skiing. North Star, Lake Tahoe was mentioned so you know who in the audience didn't doze off.

RAFFLE

1st Prize, bottle of Vodka, Sam San Filippo
2nd Prize, $1, Frank Ferrera
Mystery Raffle, $8, Pete Bello, absent

Youth & Community Activities Raffle Ch'mn. Ray Squeri reports the club sold a total of 233 books of tickets. The cost to the club for the books was $339, realizing a net profit of $1,974. Forty-one out of forty-four members and two outside groups participated in the sales. Top ticket book sellers were Irene Tonelli (Pharmaceutical Auxiliary), 26; Bill Tonelli, 23; Ray Squeri, 18; and Ted Zagorewicz, 16.

The April 19th drawings were attended by the W. Tonellis and Ron Faina. Ramona Parks, wife of a Foster City L.C. member won the first prize of $6,000. Tony Laura, 1080 Munich St. won $50 on a ticket purchased from Bill Tonelli, and John P. Alcoridge, 1291 31st Ave. won $50 on a ticket purchased from Carl Muehlen-dorf.

At the Board of Directors Meeting held April 23rd, the Board pledged to donate $1,500 to Sister Clea Herold towards the purchase of equipment needed for the hard of hearing and deaf. This amount will be donated only if and when her group raises the needed difference of $1,900. The Board also authorized the purchase of a new club banner reading "Home of Governor Bill Tonelli."

A new newspaper collection shack has been constructed, painted and roofed, and placed at the Mission St. & Russia Ave. site to replace the burned shack. Quick work on the part of the committee so as the project wouldn't bog down.

Lion Bill Shea recently received a phone call from former G.-E. Secretary Sam Shortz who is residing in Hawaii.

Frances Lefkowitz, a senior from Lowell High School and an entry from the North Beach L.C., Region 1 won the first prize of $300 and a television set at the District Student Speaker Contest on April 29th. She competed against the Region 2 representative. The speaker from Region 3 failed to show up.

Handford and Margot Clews hosted five other G.-E. members and their ladies to cocktails and hors d' oeuvres prior to going on to the fund raising So. S.F. Lions Club Spaghetti Feed & Casino Night held at the So. S.F. Rod & Gun Club on April 26th. Some of the casino winners were Handford Clews, 1 gallon of Smirnoff Vodka; "Goldfinger," a set of bar glasses; and Joe Farrah, a Raggedy Ann Doll.

Nine members made a campaign visitation to the Foster City L.C. dinner-meeting held at the Black Angus Restaurant, San Mateo on April 22nd. It was a Ladies Night where they showed movies of ten years of conventions. The G.-E. delegation cheered when it saw a sign reading "Kleinbach For Governor" in one of the old films.

Celebrating wedding anniversaries recently were Fred & Barbara Krahl and Ed & Bobbie Damonte on May 2nd.

May birthday greetings to Marilyn Harrison on the 4th and to Harriet Kleinbach and Marge Martin on the 11th.
