

The May 21st meeting was called to order by President Ted. The Pledge of Allegiance was lead by Lion Mike Castagnetto, and the invocation was given by Lion Galdo Pavini. There was no program on the agenda so the ten members in attendance conducted the scheduled Board Meeting after dinner. Lion Bob Pacheco, serving as Acting Secretary, helped keep the board right on course.

Board action was as follows:

Contributions to the Lions Eye Foundation in the amount of $25 each in the memories of Isabel Smith and Lion Stan Stebbins, P.D.G.

A donation of $300 to the Presentation Shelter Home for Abused Children c/o Sister Mary Jo Wise.

A pledge of $145 to send Sorella Romero, a local deaf girl, to a CYO summer campership at Occidental.

Canceled the regular meeting of Wed., June 4th because no program is scheduled and the date falls between the convention and the June 7th Installation Banquet.

Lion Frank Ferrera reported the May 18th Hors D' Oeuvres Extravaganza was another success. Gross receipts from admissions and the bar were $703. Net profit will be between $500 and $525. Seventy-eight people attended the event. The hard working committee performed with the well known Geneva-Excelsior spirit and enthusiasm. Thank you to the generous donors of the door prizes. And many thanks go to the wonderful Lionettes who prepared and served all of the delicious hors d' oeuvres. Knowledge of the variety and tastiness of the morsels is spreading through all of the Lions Clubs in District Four C-4. Ladies, the members of this club are proud of you and indebted to you. You were again called upon and you responded.

Lion Frank recommended that the Extravaganza be adopted as an annual affair about the same time each year. The Board agreed.

Just prior to the end of the meeting, one of the members excused himself and left for home. After he was gone, it became apparent he hadn't paid for his dinner. He won't be named here but it may be noted he had the veal cutlets.

The cast for the convention's amateur talent show held its last rehearsal at the C. Bottarini residence last Monday. After Santa Rosa, it may be taken for a run on the Orpheum Circuit.

This week the candidate and his supporters made the last of thirty-five campaign visits to the other Lions Clubs in the district. All of the visits were a wonderful experience, and the visits gave many members an opportunity to get better acquainted with the fine Lions in other clubs. The candidate and the Geneva-Excelsior Lions Club are indeed grateful to the members who gave of their time and effort to accompany Lion Bill Tonelli on these visitations.

Wednesday five members visited the Daly City Skylions dinner-meeting at Toto's in Daly City. Thursday six couples attended the Woodside-Portola Valley L.C. Ladies Night dinner-meeting in Redwood City. When dessert was being served, one prankish G.-E. wife sneakily switched a bowl of whipped butter for a similar looking bowl of ice cream. She put the cookie into the butter bowl, placed the butter bowl in front of her unwary husband, and allowed him to innocently scoop a spoonful of butter into his mouth.

Lion Bill Cazatt and Nina are extending an invitation to everybody attending the June 7th Installation of Officers Banquet to a pre-banquet cocktail party they are hosting at their residence. Advise Banquet Ch'mn. Joe Farrah how many in your group will be attending. He must have a count for the caterer at the Olympic Club.

Many birthdays coming up. Having May birthdays are Ann Benetti, 5/22; Estelle Bottarini, Sam San Filippo and Sophie Zagorewicz, 5/26; Ann Pacheco, 5/27. Celebrating their birthdays at Santa Rosa will be Linnie Faina, 5/28; Gil Smail, 5/30; and Emily Farrah, 6/1.

Ron & Linnie Faina will also be celebrating their wedding anniversary at Santa Rosa on May 29th. Celebrating early June anniversaries will be Bill & Irene Tonelli on the 2nd, and Bob & Pauline Woodall on the 4th.

Conventioneers, have a good time at Santa Rosa, come back with many prizes and awards, and DRIVE CAREFULLY.
