Volume 57, No. 12

Serving Since 1951

June, 2009

June 3rd Meeting

The meeting was called to order by President George Salet. Pledge to the flag was led by Galdo Pavini, and Bre Jones gave the invocation. A total of 10 members were in attendance. David DeMartini conducted introductions.

A representative from Assemblywoman Fiona Ma's office left a May 2009 Newsletter to be distributed.

President-elect Lyle Workman is asking for member input via a biography/interest questionnaire he has distributed to all members. Complete same and promptly get it back to Lyle along with the requested photo. A new club website is at GenevaMissionLions.com Lyle announced the club's next year budget will be hammered out at the coming June 17th meeting.

Y & C A Chairman Bill Graziano reported the club earned $2,500 from the project. He expressed gratitude to Aaron Straus and Bre Jones for assisting him.

Mystery Lion Galdo Pavini had no victims.

Board Meeting

Treasurer Handford Clews reported two members remain delinquent in their dues. The board decided to give them until June 30th to get current.

Secretary Ward Donnelly read letters of gratitude from the Lions Eye Foundation, St. Mary's Day Care, and National Association for Visually Handicapped. Ward also reported attendance for the month of May was 40%.

The board voted to grant $300 to the Coalition of Concerned Medical Professionals.

Immediate Past-President Bre Jones reported she is working on an installation of officers event. Details will be announced soon.

June 17th Meeting

The meeting was called to order by President George Salet. Pledge to the flag was led by Robert Fenech, and Charlie Bottarini gave the invocation. A total of 10 members and 3 ladies were in attendance.

This was a Budget Committee meeting. President-elect Lyle Workman computer produced and distributed to all present charts and graphs detailing time periods, income and expenses of all club activities and grants to beneficiaries. Discussion followed. There was a consensus that no changes in the budget are called for. However, because of declining revenue, Lyle recommended that the club no longer underwrites the cost of members attending the district convention or pays for the dinners of past-presidents at Past-Presidents Night.
