December 3rd Meeting

Tail-twister Dick Johnson quizzed the members about the location of the International Convention.

President Bre reminded members of the upcoming December 22nd Christmas Party at Mission Educational Center, and asked for volunteers to assemble and distribute the gift packages. Bre announced there will be no meeting the second Wednesday of December - - December 15th.

Members were reminded of the club's December 22nd Christmas Party at Bertolucci's. They are asked to bring with them Toys for Tots.

It is time to begin thinking about the District Convention taking place May 18 - 20. Who plans on attending?

December 17th at M.E.C.

The club put on the annual Christmas party for the students at Mission Educational Center. On hand to unload and distribute the gift packages to 83 kindergarten to 5th grade pupils were Lyle Workman, Bob Quinn and Joe & Emily Farrah. Officer Nacho Martinez from Ingelside precinct again took on the role of Santa Claus. Accompanying him were two attractive costumed elves named Nancy Andelin and Terri Majors. Last year's Santa suit never surfaced. It was reportedly picked up at Ingelside by an unidentified club member so another suit had to be purchased. Lyle Workman is to be praised for undertaking this project by purchasing the gift items, boxes of tangerines and apples, and bagging and labeling them by grade and gender. He also took photos of each pupil sitting on Santa's lap. The club's cost of this project was between $800 and $850.

December 22nd Christmas Dinner

A total of 30 Lions, ladies, family and friends were in attendance at this festive event at Bertolucci's Restaurant. Paul & Rosalinda Corvi were there having recently returned from Spain. Everybody brought Toys For Tots, which John Jones delivered to the San Rafael Fire Dept. for distribution to needy children. Handford Clews did a great job in handling reservations and leading in the singing of Christmas songs. An after-dinner treat was a tray of donuts sent by Dave Norton of Reno.
