

GENEVA MISSION LIONS CLUB

Volume 60, No. 4

Serving Since 1951

October, 2011

October 5th meeting

The meeting was called to order by President Ward Donnelly. Pledge to the flag was led by David Demartini, and Lyle Workman gave the invocation. Al Gentile conducted introductions. A total of 9 members and 3 ladies were in attendance.

Committee Reports

Football Pool Chairman Lyle Workman announced the pool winners of the previous two football games.

Charity Raffle Chairperson Bre Jones was absent so Handford Clews reported for her 185 raffle tickets have been sold/purchased to date. Bre is asking all members to sell at least two new tickets to help reach the club's goal.

Mystery Lion Bill Graziano had no victims. Handford Clews won $4 in the Attendance Drawing. Handford stated this win makes only his second in all of the years he has been a club member. Shall we take up a collection?

Lyle Workman is to be praised for quickly producing a new master form and updated roster for the printed editions of the club bulletin.

Board Meeting

Treasurer Handford Clews gave his report. One member is still delinquent paying club dues and one member still owes $55 for attending the installation of officers dinner. Handford consulted with an attorney regarding the club's legal and tax reporting status. The attorney advised simplification would be for the club to change its name back to Geneva-Excelsior. The Board voted to do so and directed the club secretary to notify District Four C-4, Multiple District 4 and Lions International. The Board approved payment of the attorney Patricia Leon's $300 fee.

Ward Donnelly reported club attendance for the month of September was 58%.

October 19th meeting

The meeting was called to order by President Ward Donnelly. Pledge to the flag was led by Viela duPont, and Mike Castagnetto gave the invocation. A total of 9 members and 2 ladies were in attendance. Mike Castagnetto conducted introductions. Secretary Joe Farrah read letters of gratitude from Riordan High School, Project Open Hand and Clinic by the Bay. President Ward read a letter from Emily Powell informing the club Balboa students are collecting used eye glasses and will be selling Y & C A tickets. Ward announced Paul Corvi will again be chairing the Student Speaker contest. Ward also announced a representative of St. Mary's Adult Center will be speaking at the upcoming November 2nd meeting.

Committee Reports

Football Pool Chairman Lyle Workman announced the winners of the last two football games.

Handford Clews informed the club that as of October 18th 192 Charity Raffle tickets had been sold/purchased. Mike Castagnetto reported crab season opens in November but the cost of the crab is unknown at this time. Mike Castagnetto won $2 in the Attendance Drawing. The Mystery Lion was a mystery.
