

GENEVA EXCELSIOR LIONS CLUB

Volume 63, No. 7

Serving Since 1951

January, 2015

January 7th meeting

A total of 11 members and 2 ladies were in attendance.

Viela duPont reported the Christmas party at Mission Educational Center was a success. She is in receipt of the form to order flags for Flag Day, and is waiting to hear from principal Deborah Moloff how many students will be given flags. Viela also reminded members the Student Speaker Contest will take place at the next meeting.

The club received a letter of gratitude from Marjorie Tobias School in Daly City. A school representative was in attendance at the meeting and gave a See's candy bar to all present. She also gave to the club a framed photo of all of the school's students.

Bill Graziano informed the club Handford Clews mailed or delivered to all members their 4 books of Y & C A raffle tickets. Don't allow these tickets to remain idle in your desk. Follow the instructions that came with the tickets.

Board Meeting

Treasurer Handford Clews read and distributed copies of his monthly report.

There was more Crab Feed discussion. Bob Fenech suggested next year's club holiday party not have any other events taking place.

January 22nd meeting

The meeting was called to order by President Viela duPont. Tail-twister Bob Fenech conducted introductions but neglected to fine himself for erroneously identifying himself as Lion Tamer. A total of 13 members plus 3 ladies were in attendance. Viela announced 1st Vice District Governor Macy Mak Chan will be making a campaign visit to this club's next meeting. Viela also announced the February 18th meeting will be Past-Presidents Night and nomination of officers for the 2015-16 year. All past presidents act as a nominating committee and are requested to convene at the I.A.S.C. at 5:45 on this date.

Bill Graziano reported 400 books of Y & C A tickets were delivered to Our Lady of Lourdes Church and 150 books were delivered to Frank Law, president of Monroe School PTA.

$11 was won in the Attendance Drawing by Edward Marchese.

Student Speakers Contest

Paul Corvi again conducted the club's annual Student Speaker competition. Lowell High School coach Mr. Abad informed Paul their speaker took ill and won't be competing so the club was left with only one speaker, 10th grader Natalie Granik from George Washington High School. She spoke on the topic "Water Conservation – What Can We Do To Conserve, Recycle And Reclaim." Natalie was presented with a framed certificate and an award check of $100. Her proud father Gary Punikversky was present. She will advance to the Zone 1 competition conducted by Z.C. Sandy Ige. Date and location to be announced. The contest judges were Ric Micheli, Frank Gelini and John & Ellen Paul. Gelini bought a book of Y & C A tickets from Joe Farrah.

BIRTHDAYS/ANNIVERSARIES

2/4 Galdo & Pat Pavini; 2/8 Joe & Emily Farrah; 2/13 Lorraine Castagnetto; 2/16 Charles Bottarini; 2/19 Dorothy Pearson

COMING EVENTS

1/28 S.F. Council Meeting; 2/4 Board meeting; 2/18 Past-Presidents Night, Nomination of Officers