Meeting Digest 1-18-17

The meeting was called to order by Lion President Sharon Eberhardt who turned the meeting over to Lion Paul Corvi for the Student Speakers contest. There were a total of 11 members present.

Members, judges, and guests just prior to our contest.

Chairman Lion Paul Corvi confiring with Lion Joe Farrah.

We had four judges this year. Paul Gelineo who is a high-ranking member of Toast Masters, Enrico Micheli who was with San Francisco Schools, and John and Ellen Paul, both who are with the California School for the Blind. John Paul was the MD4 winner of the Student Speaker Contest in 1964.

Student Speaker Contest

The contest began with the reading of a few rules, how the contest works, and then went directly into the contest.

Members, judges, and guests waiting between contestants.

The topic this year: "Is the Right to Privacy a Threat to Our National Security" was presented by our two contestants. They were both well spoken and took us through their thoughts on the subject, on two similar but different paths.

Chairman Lion Paul Corvi confiring with our contestants.

Our two contestants were both from Sacred Heart Cathedral High School. They were accompanied by their fathers and coach Johnathan Lim.

As with all contests, there must be a winner. Our winner narrowly won over our other contestant to take home the prize and move on to meet the next challenge in the Zone Contest. Editor's note: the Chairman has not gotten back with correct spelling of contestants names; their names will appear in the next edition.

The Zone Contest details are not available, but will be passed along when available.

Crab Feed

The Crab Feed is rapidly approaching at the Mariposa Hunters Point Yacht Club on February 18th. Flyers are available by clicking the image above from the Club website (No, you can't click the print version). Tickets have been on sale with 65 gone as of yesterday. Send funds to Lion Handford Clews, 141 Elm St., #4, San Mateo 94401 to get your tickets.

Mike Spediacci, Jr. will be our guest chef again, with possibly a pasta specialist added to the mix.

Our Teeshirt & Hoodie Sale began this past weekend. Check it out here: Teeshirt and Hoodie Sale. You can order online or by mail. Mail order pricing has changed to Woman's Tee $31, Man's Tee $32, and Hoodie $45. Mail order form is available on the website. Sponsorships can be added and are $225 which includes your imprint on all the shirts and hoodies, plus your choice of a free tee shirt or hoodie included. Details on our website.

Y & C Raffle

Lion Viela du Pont was back and gave us a short rundown on the raffle. Group sales are doing well and ticket books are due back next month; letters may be going out to past charity raffle participants. This was to be a work session for the raffle, but this did not come to fruition. More to follow.

Football

Etcetera

Lion Emily Powell brought a bag of used eye glasses from Balboa High and thanked the students for their hard work.

Forwarded

Have any photos pertaining to the Club? Forward them to us with the details! Lion Joe Farrah forwarded two flyers on upcoming events in our district.
