Installation of Officers

The Installation of Officers came off with only a minimum of problems. In attendance were Lions Ernie Braun with wife Millie, Ward Donnelly, President Sharon Eberhardt with 6 guests, Joe Farrah, Bob Fenech with guest Leona Wong, Bill Graziano with his sister, Bob and Zenaida Lawhon, Jerry and Jackie Lowe, and Lyle Workman. Special guests included installing officer PDG Art Pignati and his wife Sylvia, and Zone Chairman Mariah Tucker with her grandfather PDG Don Stanaway.

Absent, and very much missed, was honoree Lion Handford Clew and wife Margot. Handford fell at home and was in the hospital, so could not make it. We were able to keep the secret of our honoring his 40 Years of Service which was revealed to him by Lyle Workman who visited him that day. He was pleased and surprised.

Lion PDG Art Pignati did an excellent job giving the officers present their charge for the year. Lion PDG Don Stanaway also gave us a few words of wisdom. Zone Chair Maryah Tucker let us know that a few Lions in the District are trying to save the Y & C Raffle, but it does not look good.

A photo array follows of the installation and items honoring Lion Handford. His presidential scrapbook was also there.

Football Fundraiser

There is only a short time before this fundraiser kicks in. A few members have spots that have not been paid. Let's get this done right away.

Y & C Raffle

Lion President Sharon Eberhardt attended the 1st Cabinet Meeting and reports that the District Governor dropped a bomb - the Youth and Community Raffle will not be held this year. The reasons are many and a little unclear. As this is one of our biggest fundraisers, we need to put on our thinking caps and come up with an alternative.
