Meeting Digest 9-6-17

With only six members in attendance, the meeting was not called to order but just began. There was no pledge or invocation.

Y & C Raffle

This was the big discussion of the meeting. The projections on the raffle, based on last year's numbers, were discussed by those present. All those present knew if we wanted to put this together, we needed to jump on it fast.

It was pointed out, and understood by everyone present, that there needed to be additional fund raising to cover expenses in order to make the raffle work for us. The numbers did not seem insurmountable to everyone and agreement on the fund raising aspect was quick.

With agreement in hand that the raffle could work for us, ideas began to flow. Lion Joe Farrah (?) asked if other Lions Clubs in the District could participate. It was thought there would be no reason why not. Lion Joe has since sent out an email to all the other Clubs inviting them to participate. Materials have since been prepared for the Clubs to review. To date, only the San Bruno Lions have responded and want to be counted in. We are waiting for confirmation on how many books they may want.

Within two days of the meeting, four of the members present at the meeting had filled three of the five display ads and had sponsored the 2nd prize. Excellent work!! It still leaves a lot of work to be done though. To see progress on the sponsorships and ads in the raffle, visit our website and click the Y & C Raffle flyer on the home page.

On September 8th, a letter was sent out to all of our members by Lion Lyle Workman, acting as development on this project. The letter asked for action from each member to help get this going quickly. Response may be coming in soon.

Football Fundraiser

A very short report was given; all is set for the new season. A couple of participants have not paid in full, but are being tracked down and it is being taken care of.

Since the meeting, the first game of the season was played. Winners were Tom Toohey, Aaron Straus, and John Perryman. More winners in the coming weeks.

Board Meeting

Unfortunately there was not a quorum at the meeting so no binding business took place, including approval of the budgets. Board members are urged to attend meetings; we need b.i.t.s. (butts in the seats) at the meetings.

Attendance Raffle & Mystery Lion

Attendance Raffle winner of $32 was Lion Sharon Eberhardt. The Mystery Lion was present, but not called upon. Lion Viela du Pont had no victims.
