Meeting Digest 3-18-2020

The meeting was cancelled due to the shelter in place order from Governor Newsom. Not a lot was happening anyway. Future meetings will resume when possible.

An online meeting has been suggested by Lion President George Salet using Zoom Online Meetings. It is unclear how many of our members either have the equipment, or know how to use it, for online meeting technology. Our next scheduled meeting is scheduled for April 1st, April Fools Day. Check out their website; a very short 45 second youtube video tells a little about Zoom. It will be necessary to install their app. Check it out and email Lion George if willing to give it a try.

Student Speaker Contest

The 2020 Student Speaker Contest has been suspended. Our speaker, Michael Gray from Riordan, will be informed as soon as new info is available.

Lions Youth & Community Activities Raffle

Although our meetings are cancelled, or may be, for the foreseeable future, the drawing will still be held on April 15th. It is uncertain when or where, but it will happen. More info to follow.

When the San Bruno Lions' Peter Carey returned their Y & C Tickets to Lion Joe Farrah, he also gave him one of our Standing Lion Club Pins from 1981. How do I know the year? It has a small 30 year tag in the bag with the pin. Thanks Lion Peter.

Etcetera

From Lion Joe Farrah (part of a larger conversation): I am still down with a sore throat and feeling lethargic. Temperature is normal. I went out Thursday to do some necessary banking and grocery shopping. It is good I went out early because 1st Republic Bank has shortened its hours closing at 3:30 P.M. I am going to assume that no Lions Clubs will be meeting until we get an "all clear" message.

From Lion Viela du Pont: She has sent out ecards from American Greetings just to say "Hi, and stay well" to fellow Lions.

Attendance Raffle & Mystery Lion

Attendance raffle and Mystery Lion will return at the next live meeting.
