Lions Youth & Community Activities Raffle

All aspects of the raffle are well underway:

Groups: 14 groups have ordered 1456 books to date. Groups are in a holding pattern until the ticket books are returned. If anyone has an idea for a new selling group, now would be a good time to let the chairman know. About 200 books are available.

Members: 14 members have purchased 94 ticket books, sponsored or have ads, or both. We're almost up with last year, but not quite.

Friends & Family: To date, 440 books have been pre-ordered, and paid for, by 47 purchasers. They have been very generous. Will we have participation as good as previous years? I'd say yes; we even have several who have not purchased for some time purchasing this year.

Ads & Sponsors: $3,390.00 has come in to date. We're just a little short of our goal. We'll see what develops.

Overall health: If nothing else were to happen with the raffle, we would clear a little over $5,000.00 right now. Good and getting better.

Lions Football

Game 10 winners: 1st: Victor Sambel, 2nd & 3rd: Steven Annuzzi, final: Rick Wright, and reverse: Chris Economo.

Game 11 winners: 1st, 2nd, & 3rd: Lori Stoepplewerth, final: Lyle Workman, and reverse: John Conway (new guy).

Game 12 winners: 1st: Arline Thomas & Vicky Tentler, 2nd & 3rd: Nancy Sanguinetti, final & reverse: Marvin Nasrah.

Crab Feed

After discussing the event for several months, and some of the possibilities for having it, on the recommendation of chairman Lion Bob Fenech and the members present, the event has been cancelled for this year.

Student Speaker Contest

Lion Paul Corvi has penciled in March 3rd. Not sure if at the IASC or via Zoom. The kit has been received and is ready. The topic this year is: "Distance & Online Learning: Pros & Cons."

Sample Postcard

A sample postcard design was sent out by DG Fanny Chu as an idea for distribution in our area, and by our membership. After a short discussion, we decided that time was a little short right now, but we'd save the idea and possibly use it later.
