Meeting Digest 6-3-26

The meeting was called to order by Lion President Stephen Martin. The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Zenaida Lawhon, and invocation was handled by Lion President Stephen Martin. Five of our Lions were in attendance: Lyle Workman, Stephen Martin, Bob & Zenaida Lawhon, and George Salet.

Lion George Leeds did a quick zoom-by visit during the board meeting from the Delta King paddlewheel riverboat hotel in Sacramento. Lion Connie Binaley also made a quick cameo appearance. George showed us a quick look around the boat, answered a few questions about it, and said goodbye as the wifi was not very good. One of his next stops was the California State Train Museum, in Old Town Sacramento.

Correspondence

Received was:

- Info from Jimmy Ness about the SF and Peninsula Councils of Lions.
- A banner patch has been received from LCIF for our 2025-2026 participation.
- Invitation to, and info about, the July Lions Eye Foundation meeting.

Business Meeting

Not much going on; a bit about our bulletin was in the last issue. Covered in discussion was:

- 1 reply, or comment, had been received.
- Who receives the District Thread?
- Some info from the Thread is duplicated in our bulletin.
- How issues are put together.
- Why the Before & After section?
- Convention election results.
- Source files and links.
- Time it takes to put out an issue.
- 646 bulletin pdfs on our website; searchable on the editor's computer as a resource.

Our Club Pin & Banner also came up:

- Last redesign was in the late 1970s, or early 1980s.
- There was a small supply of pins; where did they go?
- Same for Club banners?
- The last presidential pin was made when Dick Johnson was president in 1993-94, it's believed.

Board Meeting

Covered in a quick meeting:

- Roll call and quorum.
- Minutes of the previous Board meeting.
- Treasurer's report.
- When is Lions Football and the next Lions Youth & Community Raffle going to start?
- Viela du Pont.
